INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

REPORT

TO THE LISTENER

VALERIE VAN ISLER, GENERAL MANAGER

THE FIRST AMENDMENT REPRESENTS THE BEDROCK RIGHT--THE FOUNDATION UPON WHICH ALL OTHER RIGHTS REST.

In the past two months, as WBAI entered its 37th year of community broadcasting, we also completed our Winter-1997 membership drive. We are very pleased to report that we made our goal for this critical campaign. This was only possible because you and thousands of other members pledged $1,017,542 in listener support and helped this station make community radio history once again this year. Thank you so very much for your extraordinary generosity and for keeping your commitment to our important work by sending in your pledge today.

And we at WBAI continue to keep our commitment to you by bringing some of the best in broadcasting to these community airwaves each and every year. We are apparently succeeding, because many of our programs were honored in the past and we have been informed that several others will be recipients of major awards again this year. Some of the work that we are very proud of includes the cutting-edge reports and broadcasts from our news, public affairs and arts departments. The daily, national program, Democracy Now! anchored by Amy Goodman from WBAI, was cited as the best broadcast in the country for its coverage of the 1996 election campaign. Our current work around the case of journalist Mumia Abu Jamal which the corporate media and even public broadcasting won't touch, has now attracted national attention.

Over the years, we've shared the concerns, hopes and dreams of the sation with you in this report. We talked with you about the critical need for upgrading our broadcast equipment and studios, and we successfully completed that project, with all thanks to you, in 1996. This year, we have some important plans for the future to share with our members as well. For over three decades, the station has needed someone to work on an annual gift campaign and help us secure the resources for the big projects which we must do to survive and grow. During the winter, we completed the search and hired a new edition to our staff. Gabrielle Hanna came on as our major-gifts director to implement the annual project and begin our planning for a very necessary capital campaign to help WBAI secure a new home. She is an experienced development professional and fills a vital need for this station. We will keep you updated about our progress with these efforts throughout the year.

This spring '97 edition of our Folio is dedicated to all the women of the world. Every March, we produce special programming to celebrate International Women's Day, and this time, our focus is specially on Roisin McAliskey, the daughter of Bernadette Devlin, who remains imprisoned by the British government. In paying tribute to our work, Bernadette has said that "WBAI is a critical voice for freedom, not just for people in America, but for people in Ireland and throughout the world". Please tune in on March 8 and 9 for some extraordinary broadcasts by the sisterhood at WBAI, featuring reports on women's social, political, health, cultural issues. We always remember that "when you educate a man, you educate one person, but when you educate a woman, you educate the nation". Again, our special thanks for your support this winter.

LETTER FROM BERNADETTE DEVLIN MCALISKEY

Dear Friends,

I want to thank WBAI for the lead they have taken in the campaign to free my daughter, Roisin, who is unjustly imprisoned in a British jail. Many of the people who have written to Roisin have gotten her address from WBAI, from the many different programs I have spoken on. And because of WBAI's consistent interest, Pacifica itself picked it up, and that in turn has lead people from other cities, notably on the West Coast, getting back to me. So I would like to thank everyone at WBAI for their support for Roisin and, of course, for their consistent support for the causes of justice and challenging of injustice.

I also saw the power of WBAI last September when I came over to New York at the invitation of a number of people within the Irish community who specifically wanted to hightlight the scandal of the burning of the Black churches in the southern states, and to make a specifically Irish American contribution towards challenging that. WBAI really took up the promotion of that event and was central to its importance, with the result that when we got down to Tramps where the event took place, I thought that the world and its mother had turned up. Certainly I think it was the single biggest gathering of decent people that I have seen for a long time, being multicultural, with people from every background, a lot of the new kids, all coming together, not the least because of the tremendous efforts of WBAI to sponsor highlight and promote the whole event.

WBAI is a critical voice for freedom, not just for people in America, but for people in Ireland and throughout the world.

RADIO FREE EIREANN

Irish culture and politics with Mick Dewan, John McDonagh, Cait Mullen and Brian Mor.

Roisin McAliskey is six months pregnant and being held in a British prison without bail while the German government request her extradition. She is asthmatic, suffering from rheumatoid arthritis and an ulcer. Medical experts have stated that unless she is released on bail and allowed access to proper medical care, her life and that of her unborn child are at risk. She is the daughter of Bernadette Dvlin McAliskey.

On its face, the refusal of the British government to grant bail to Roisin defies logic. The extradition request itself is based on the most unreliable snippets of information - an eye witness who was shown a picture of Roisin and then indicates that he possibly recognized her, despite the lack of any resemblance to a police sketch of a suspect; and a partial fingerprint taken from the cellophane wrapper of a cigarrette pack. An Irish Catholic chaplaincy in London offered to house and supervise Roisin and over a half-million pounds in cash and property have been offered to the court. But Roisin is Bernadette Devlin McAliskey's daughter, and the British government in a coldl, and calculated manner is exacting it's revenge on Bernadette by putting the life of her daughter and unborn grandchild at risk

Human Rights Watch/Helsinki has called on the British government to guarantee Roisin access to medical care. If such care continues not to be provided, Human Rights Watch/Helsinki urges both governments to end their opposition to bail so that Roisin can have access to adequate medical care. In a statement issued on January 31, 1997, Human Rights Watch/Helsinki expressed their concern and outrage. "Roisin McAliskey teatment in detention is an appalling violation of the most basic standards of care for prisoners At the same time the British government refusees Ms. McAliskey adequate care for prisoners both the British and German governments opose bail for her Their intransigence is not only obstructing this woman from getting essential med ical treatment, but the conditions of her detention are exacerbating her health problems. The British government has shown an appalling lack of respect for its obligations under international law and the German government is complicit".

If Roisin is not released on bail, as a category A prisoner she will give birth to her baby while shackled and handcuffed to a hospital bed. Although Holloway prison host a mother child wing, because of her status, Roisin is not eligible for that wing. Her baby will be taken from her immediately after birth.

Bernadette Devlin McAliskey has been a frequent guest on Radio Free Eireann, and many other WBAI programs. She has been a tireless fighter for justice in her own country, and wherever her words and action could be of help. To think of anyone's daughter being held in conditions that Roisin is being held in, demands outrage and action. The fact that it is Bernadette's daughter makes it almost unbeareable. Radio Free Eireann has been spearheading the cause of justice for Roisin McAliskey.

On March 8th, from 1:00p.m.-3:00p.m., there will be a march from Lufthansa Airline at 54th Street and Eight Avenue to the British Consulate on Third Avenue. In commemoration of International Women's Day, Radio Free Eireann will host a two hour special from 1:00p.m.-3:00p.m. also on March 8th, which will highlight the plight of Roisin McAliskey. On March 17th, Radio Free Eireann will broadcast for the entire day, from 10:00a.m. to 6:00p.m.. The show will continue to highlight the plight of Roisin McAliskey.

BUILDING BRIDGES:

YOUR COMMUNITY AND LABOR REPORT

PRODUCED BY: MIMI ROSENBERG AND KEN NASH

Woman's Work, From Field To Factory
Saturday March 8th, 1997, 8:30a.m. - 10:00a.m.

As we come marching, marching, we bring the greater days.
The rising of woman means the rising of the race.
No more the drudge and idler-ten that toil where one reposes,
But a sharing of life's glories: Bread and roses!
Bread and roses!
-James Oppenheim, "Bread and Roses"

Mimi Rosenberg, producer of Building Bridges: Your Community and Labor report, along with special co-host Patricia Williams, in a two hour International Working Woman's Day program will chronicle the story of working woman in America. From field to factory, from domestic to the service sector, we were there. Woman's Work will tell of working woman who had to work and it will highlight our continuing efforts for equality.

The stories, are told in their own words by Brenda Steward, Work Experience Program (WEP) participant. Luminaries such as Delores Huerta, Vice President of the United Farm Workers of America, or recently elected Vice President of the AFL-CIO, Linda Chevez-Thompson are complemented by the commentaries of their elders, like Ah Quon McElrath, or "AQ" as she is known by sugar plantation wokers and longshoreman in Hawaii. From the present to the past, we will bring to you the words of Fanny Lou Hammer and Mother Jones. All these woman faced difficulties in their personal lives, overcame challenges and improved our everyday lives. We emerge from the silence of the worker's movement about our idealism, activism and achievement.

As we come marching, marching, unnumbered woman dead
Go crying through our singing their ancient song of bread
Small art and love and beauty their drudging spirits knew.
Yes, it is dread we fight for;
But we fight for roses, too.

D E S K

PRODUCED BY PAUL WILLIAMS AND DAA'IYA LOMAX
Alternate Mondays, 1:00 a.m--1:20 a.m. (inside Carrier Wave)
Hello! UFO Desk here, in the person of Paul Williams-- producer and creator of same. This ends our first year of production and it's my fervent hope that UFO Desk has taken you places you had not been before.

My friend, Daa'iya Lomax and I have taken you on the chase of the elusive Chupacabra--that mysterious, blood-sucking, anomalous beast which was lurking and killing in Puerto Rico. Although, there are no known photographs of chupacabra, there are lots of dead animals--many with the trademark single puncture hole and a body partially drained of blood. We've looked into the psychic world of Remote Viewing, a way of a technique that some say any reasonable person can learn. We've spent time studying anomalous objects in the orbit of Saturn. Are these massive objects spacecraft? Dr. Norman Bergrun of California thinks so and we've discussed his book on the subject.

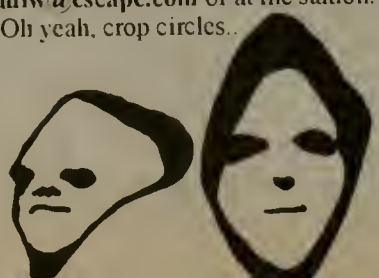
We've spent hours talking with planetary scientists concerning Martian anamolies, such as the face on Mars and other unexplainables, and preparation for the arrival of Earth spacecraft on the red planet.

During the first year, I spoke with Dr. Joseph Burke of San Diego, a member of (the) Center (for the) Study (of) Exterrestial Intelligence (CSETI). This group initiates contact with UFO's. I've spoken with a New Yorker who claims he has been abducted by non-humans. He showed me some photographic evidence that shook me up. Listen to his story and decide for yourself.

This spring, with guest co-host, John Velez, we will take an in-depth look at abductions (non-human-initiated contact with UFO's). Joining us will be Budd Hopkins and others. Hopkins is an artist and the founder of the Intruders Foundation and author of Witnessed: The Brooklyn Bridge Abductions. Also due are programs on the comet of the century, Hale-Bopp and a document which former US Army member Robert O. Dean claims will confirm that NATO troops have recovered downed UFO's.

Thanks to those of you who've sent letters and material. Some have asked that UFO Desk air at an earlier time and be given its own hour. Letters to Program Director, Samori Marksman count but even more, during our next fundraising drive, let your dollars speak.

Thanks also to our guests, who've made the program worth listening to... I've learned a lot in these past 12 months and you'll find a more critical host. There's so much more...write me at paulw@escape.com or at the station. Peace and blessings to all. Oh yeah, crop circles..



OUR AMERICAS

The weekly report on Latin America and the Caribbean

"...the time is near at hand when an enterprising and vigorous people who scorn or ignore Our America will even so approach it and demand a close relationship....the pressing need of Our America is to show itself as it is, one in spirit and intent, swift conqueror of a suffocating past, stained only by the enriching blood drawn from hands that struggle to clear away the ruins and from the scars left upon us by our masters. The scorn of our formidable neighbor who does not know us is Our Americas's greatest danger."
-Jose Marti, 1881

Our Americas is a timely, informative weekly radio program designed to give the listeners a comprehensive picture of the people and events that are shaping the region as we close out the 20th Century. From the pages of NACLA's Report on the Americas to Pacifica Radio's award-winning reportage on Latin America, Our Americas brings you the latest news and analysis every week, and features the newsmakers, journalists, scholars and activists that are making history throughout the hemisphere.

Our Americas is now heard on stations in the U.S. and Canada, and on shortwave through Radio for Peace International. Tune in on Friday afternoons at 5:00p.m. for our Americas (with Cuba in Focus every last Friday of the month) with Jerome Chou, Joon Young-Lym and Kai-Ming Cha, where the spirit of the 1955 Bandung Conference, which condemns colonialism in all of its forms, lives and we remember that "...capital comes dripping from head to toe, from every pore, with blood and dirt".

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY SPECIAL
March 8 2:30p.m.-4:00p.m. Part I The feminization of labor Some twenty years ago, Maria Mies with her colleagues, Claudia von Welhof and Veronika Bennholdt-Thomsen, published a collection of essays titled Women: The Last Colony. Taking these essays as a starting point, we examine the treatment of women in the history of capital accumulation, articulate a feminist theory of capitalism and challenge the binaries of economics and culture, man and woman, to formulate a radical vision of life. Bandung offers an historical analysis of rural women in India and the evolving conditions of their labor under development policies and globalization. What were women promised under Indian independence? Were feminist concerns reconciled or pushed aside by issues of nationalism and sovereignty? How do the demands of foreign markets in the piecemeal industry of lace-making, for instance devalue women? What does the "housewifization" of work mean for women in the First and Third Worlds? How are women colonized?

Part II Conceiving the New World Order: The Global Politics of Reproduction What are the effects of the globalized economy which devalues women's labor and polices their bodies? Vandana Shiva addresses the role of science and medicine in the Third World: the medicalization of women's bodies, the incorporation of bodies into scientific discourse, reproduction and population control as state policies. Why, for instance, do aid shipments to war-torn regions of Rwanda inclued the abortion pill RU-40? How are women and children, particularly girls, affected by these bureaucracies of reproduction and development? We investigate the many and seemingly contradictory images of mothering and motherhood in the era of "family values". Whose family? Whose values? Are the sexualized images of women and girls incompatible with the reproductive imperative of "family values"? Who cares for children? What will be the effects of the commercialization of childcare? How do we understand the rhetoric of family planning (abortion and birth control) in a global perspective?

Saturdays, 2:00--3:00 p.m.
March 15 How do I look? Beauty contests and pageantry in theThird World. Sexualizing children under the pressures of globalization. The intersection of the tourist industry, beauty queens and the accumulation of capital.
Hear Debbie Nathan on the US-Mexico border police as arbiters of politically correct fashion, of American style

March 22 Women, Nationalism and Militarism The constructions of masculinity and feminity as ideological pillars of militarism and militarism values. The relationship of the sex industry and political/military power. Are peacetime conditions preparing the ground for wartime values? Kumari Jayawardena questions whether feminism and nationalism are incompatible in the Third World. Cynthia Enloe addresses the sexual politics of the New World Order.

March 29 Looking for My Penis: The Asian/Queer Male in Gay Porn The invisibilty of the Asian male on the silver screen. The Orientalized constructions of sexualized desire--the Queer Asian male as passive lover. The politics of race and sexuality in pronography. Richard Fung, Canadian-Chinese film- and video-maker discusses Queer Porn in the Age of AIDS.

ARAB VOICES,
CRESCENT RISING

Saturday 3:00-4:00 p.m.

MARCH-APRIL 1997

Each week Mahmoud Ibrahim and Barbara Nimri Aziz host this hour-long magazine. We bring you news from the Arab people overseas and speak with Muslim community leaders and commentators here in the US. Tune in to learn about new developments in the arts, book and film reviews and interviews with young poets and artists. Production assistance by Ryme Katkhouda, Ibrahim Gonzalez, Anissa Bouziane and Freeha Rubbani.

This season Arab Voices begins a series of discussions on Harvard professor Samuel Huntington's theory on the clash of civilizations, a growing confrontation, he says, between Islamic culture on the one hand the forces of democracy and the West on the other. What implications does this theory have, Is it an ideological base for a government policy? Is it alarmist?

March 1 Barbara Nimri Aziz continues her report on conditions and prospects for Iraq with interviews recently conducted in the field.A special on Afghanistan. Afghan "Taliban Brother" Abdul Hakim Mujahid, part 1. An exclusive WBAI interview

PRODUCED BY R. PAUL MARTIN
Sunday (into Monday) 1:00-2:00 a.m.

March 9 Did we actually make it back to the Folio? Or has the deadly Cult of the Tocks Taps extended its reach from destroying the electromagnetic spectrum to obliterating print as well? In the hope that little Squishy can overcome the Anti-Spell Checker League, who owe all of their success to the catchy motto "Grammar is politically incorrect!" we shall try again to get into the exalted publication that used to be a program guide. In a candy coated marketed confection the Slugbladder Sugar Suck Stick. Watch as reporter Echidna, about to drop a sample he found in the men's room into his mouth, reacts to the warning. "I hope you don't think that's a damned Tootsie Roll!" Free Form Live Radio by R. Paul Martin. (rpmartin*@*interport.net)

March 23 Spring has been sprung! With the 1994, Spring Offensive apparently over, what will your host do? Must he return to the angst mines to find out what's next? Meanwhile, as Pickles of the North continues her attempted dredging of the National Debris Preserve (where your host lives), a sudden crisis develops when she cannot be reach through the ion cloud generated by the motile debris and she's needed by her guerilla cell which is waging resistance against Santa Claus (the jolly oppressor). In legislative news, Ennui the Hedgehog covers Senator Jesse Helms' latest legislation which would ban comet Hale-Bopp because it contradicts the Bible, and because its name is too cool. Free Form Live Radio by R. Paul Martin. www.interport.net/~rpmartin/

April 6 His dull roots having been stirred by Spring rain, your host is adrift in his own hormonal gravy. Karma pirates have lately started to covet all of those tea spoons he's accumulated and are only waiting for him to take some ether and hop on the table before they begin their caper. Pope Weaselpenis XVI tells Hector and Anvil why he missed the Easter ceremonies last week. The explanation has something to do with the bunnies he'd been sequestered with and the lawsuits which have followed. to reminisce, Jesus H. Christ talks about the days of wondering around after having resurrected himself. "Y'know if I could do with my career what I did with my corpse I'd be richer than Gates," he jokes with the perverted pontiff. Free Form Live Radio by R. Paul Martin. (rpmartin*@*interport.net)

April 20 This would have been Adolph Hitler's one hundred eighth birthday, and in a metaphysical segment his former ally and wanna-was sidekick Uncle Joe Stalin hosts a roast for the ertswhile Fuhrer. Highlights of the event, filmed in the Vatican, include mid-air mime by heel hanging expert Benito Mussolini, an ultra-alto rendering of Wagner by Generalissimo Francisco Franco and a Punch and Judy sketch featuring Kim Il Sung and Evita Peron. Noteworthy is Emperor Hirohito's sitting with his back to the audience for the entire affair in an effort to bolter his claim to be attending under duress. In a nod to the culture of Las Vega, Eva Braun pops out of a cake, looks at the Fuhrer, cries, "Uncle!" and dies of poison. Free Form Live Radio by R. Paul Martin. www.interport.net/~rpmartin/

Friday Morning Special
THE TRUTH ABOUT A.I.D.S.

March 14th, 7:00a.m.-9:00a.m.

At a time when headlines announce dramatic drops in AIDS deaths and people are daring to hope for the end of AIDS, WBAI producers come together in a candid and provocative discussion of one of the central issues of our time.

What do we know about AIDS? How has the AIDS-orthodoxy shut out the dissenting voices of Peter Duesberg and ACT-UP San Francisco, who challenge the equation HIV=AIDS? Who will indict the pharmaceutical companies and scientific establishment for prescribing toxins and poisons, for (needs verb)record-breaking profits and research grants? How have ignorance and bigotry within African-American and Latino communities condemned AIDS victims to death? To what extent is an increased emphasis on patient treatment responsible for the decline in AIDS deaths? How have safe-sex campaigns strengthened anti-gay and lesbian forces? Did the American media tell the Third World that AIDS is over?

What do we know about AIDS? No more disinformation campaigns and bogus media stories. Come with an open mind and join WBAI for the most comprehensive and challenging forum you're likely to hear on AIDS. Producers: Bob Lederer, Health Action; Tony Glover, OutFM; John Harris, Urban Health Beat; Jerome Chou and Joung-Yoon Lyn, Radio Bandung.

1:00 LATINO JOURNAL: Weekly news reports, panel discussions, music and cultural reviews with executive producer Santiago Nieves and associate producers Angelica Aquino,
Walter Krakmaya,
Melissa Mark-Viverito and Marina Ortiz.

2:00 RITMO Y ACHE: Nancy Rodriguez presents some of the finest latin music you don't hear at other stations in the area. Combine that with surprise guests (including legends in the field) and the air of an ad-lib home-time party, and you have the making of an unforgettable Sunday afternoon. You'll hear the oldies -- from favorites like Puente, Machito, Barretto, and Chico O'Farrell; the young turks like Poncho Sanchez, Fort Apache, Libre, and Louie Ramirez; and the even younger, now emerging talent like India, Johnny Almendra and Vocal Sampling.

4:00 NEW WORLD GALLERY with Chico Alvarez. Where the old and new Worlds converge. In addition to the full range of Afro-Cuban music e.g. Son Montuno, Rumba, Mambo, Charanga, and Guaguanco, host Chico Alvarez brings you the best U.S. Jazz, Rhythm & Blues, Soul, and LAtin Jazz, and there's more--zouk from the French Caribbean, samba Brazilian Jazz, contemporary Haitian music and even sounds from the African continent. A genuine new world experience.

6:00 THE WBAI EVENING NEWS. Includes a review of the week's stories.

6:30 OUTFM: We at OutFM, of all ages, genders, black, white, latina, Asian, etc., hope to bring you a sampling of our his/herstories. We hope to present an analysis and a taste of the future. We cover politics, health, culture and sexuality. We make links with communities that suffer from oppression but work toward transforming society. Our diversity breaks through the myths that we are all rich, white and male -- myths the conservative, religious right uses to shatter coalition building. With Marle Becker, Nicholas Cimorelli, Jesse Heiwa, Wanda Henderson, Dale Hornbuckle, Kim Iwamoto, Nancy Kirton, Pepperpot, Darrell Perry, Donna Redd, George Reilly, Pedro Serrano, Bob Storm and Rick X.

7:30 THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO hosted by Max Schmid.

Ret.) presents three of his unwritten books -- Dog Soup, I Don't Live Here and Angels Stole My Lunch Money. Sidney has promised Follo some of his illustrations of angels. Autographic radio with Sidney Smith. Also, UFO DESK features by Paul Williams and Daa'iya Lomax.
ALTERNATES with BACK OF THE BOOK. with R.Paul Martin

3:00 EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN: Its music is that of the great poets of the 20th century, the words of lyricists such as Ira Gershwin and Cole Porter, and the melodies to which these words were put. Broadway, Hollywood, Tin Pan Alley and New York cabaret emphasizing yesterday with sprinkles of today, are tied together, taking various songs, film excerpts and stage recordings and weaving them together into sets with a common theme. Host, David Kenney.

THE CONCERT/THEATER CLUB IS THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN NEW YORK!-
N.Y. TIMES

The New York Times

PAPER HANGER. Norman J. Seaman is an impresario who stages a good number of musical events a year, but more than that he's also one of the better-organized institutions for papering a house, his own and other musical events in almost all Manhattan halls, including Town Hall, Carnegie Hall and those at Lincoln Center.

Most artists, even the most prominent, often do not sell out the tickets for their New York engagements, although a New York booking, with its attendant reviews and excitement, increases a performer's value on tour. But because nobody like to play to anything less than a full house, managements often "paper the house" or give away free tickets to cover those empty seats. Mr. Seaman runs the Concert/Theater Club, which guarantees each member 100 free concert tickets a year—usually it comes to many more, but that's the minimum. Members get a mailing every five or six weeks, telling what's available and they can usually pick up tickets at the performance's box office by showing membership cards. The list covers everything from the best-known symphony orchestras to solo recitals. In addition, the club gets tickets to programs that have group discounts (like the upcoming Mostly Mozart Festival), which it then passes along at the reduced prices. Also, movie discounts for a number of the smaller specialty houses, and for top Broadway and Off Broadway shows. No names of papered groups appear here because who wants to announce that he or she doesn't fill?

New York

'BEAT THE BOX OFFICE: the Concert/Theatre Club guarantees you free tickets to over 100 concerts a season at Carnegie and Lincoln Center! Yearly membership brings also tons of half-price discounts for Broadway and off-Broadway theatre, as well as top restaurants, books, travel and even midtown parking. In all, A SUPERB BARGAIN!

As per raves in VARIETY, NEW YORK TIMES, NBC-TV & NEW YORK mag., the fabulous CLUB guarantees the following:

- CONCERTS • Free tickets to over 100 superb concerts at Carnegie & Lincoln Center!
- THEATRE (& DANCE) • On and off Broadway, free to ½ price!
- FILMS • Free New York screenings!
- DINING-½ the total food & drink bill!

TIM PAGE (of The New York Times), ed. HARPER COLOPHON

Inexpensive Tickets

Imagine a club that provides you with free tickets to hundreds of concerts at major New York halls and half-price tickets to more shows than you can possibly sit through in a year. Now deduct half the tab for dinner at restaurants all over town, add reduced rates at movie houses, and you may begin to suspect that Norman J. Seaman's Concert/Theatre Club is the biggest bargain in the Big Apple. The price tag confirms this suspicion. A one year, double membership will set you back (ready for this?) $29. Memberships for four are even cheaper at $39!
